Procedure: All applications must be made in writing as prescribed above and in the first instance to the Convenor of the Club to which the player is registered.
If the Club Convenor considers the application worthy of consideration WRFU, he/she must sign the application and forward it to WRFU Junior Rugby Amateur Rugby who will forward it to the WRFU Junior Rugby Grading Junior Rugby Sub-Committee.
Application requiring the consideration of the WRFU must be endorsed by the Junior club convener before being passed onto the WRFU for consideration. The forwarding of an application for regrading to the WRFU for consideration, will in no way be considered as a recommendation to the WRFU that the application be either accepted or rejected.

If the WRFU consider the application is not worthy of further consideration, or a if the WRFU declines an application, then they must retain a copy of the application and reply to the applicant in writing stating the reasons they have not endorsed the application.

WRFU decision: Approval to grant a regrading must be by unanimous vote by all members of the WRFU Junior Rugby Grading Junior Rugby Sub-Committee.

Each application will be viewed on its own merits, however in making its decision the WRFU must adhere to certain criteria i.e.:

- a. must be consistent and exercise fairness and impartiality
- b. consider at all times the safety and wellbeing of the greater majority
- c. consider the best interests and wellbeing of the child for who regrading is being applied for
- d. make its decision solely on the grounds of the disability or impediment, its degree and whether there is a clear benefit to be had in regrading the child.
